Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-10 are allowed.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowance:

The prior art made of record and considered pertinent to the applicant's disclosure does not teach or suggest the claimed limitations. Ishikawa and Bunce et al., taken individually or in combination, do not teach the claimed invention having a decoder circuit having a decoder and a separate carry function.

According to specification, paragraph [0020], decoder function is performed by AND gates and carry function is performed by OR gates. A decoder is separated from a carry function means the portion of AND gates is separated from portion of OR gates as shown FIG. 7.
